

Application for the Certificate in Political Campaigning
Department of Political Science

The Department of Political Science offers a Certificate in Political Campaigning to undergraduate majors. The certificate is designed for students who may wish to consider pursuing careers in practical politics, including campaign management, lobbying, issue advocacy, etc.

Name (as desired to appear on Certificate) Graduation Date

Telephone Email Address

REQUIREMENTS:

Students must successfully complete 18 hours of courses, including 3 hours of an approved internship (POS 4940). Please indicate below when you took POS 4940 and the grade you received.

POS 4940 Political Internship Term Grade

In addition to the internship, at least two (2) of the following basic courses are required (minimum 6 hours). Please indicate below when you took these courses and the grade you received.

POS 3204 Political Behavior Term Grade

POS 4275 Modern Political Campaigns Term Grade

POS 4463 Interest Groups Term Grade

POS 4443 Political Parties and Elections Term Grade

The remaining 9 hours should be chosen from the preceding list or from the following. NOTE: Students are encouraged to choose one or both of the remaining basic courses as part of their 9 elective hours. Students may petition the Director of the Political Campaigning Program for permission to substitute a max of one (1) other course for one of those in the following list. Please indicate when you took these courses and the grade you received.

POS 3122 State Politics Term Grade

POS 3142 Urban Politics Term Grade

POS 3173 Southern Politics Term Grade

POS 3233 Public Opinion Term Grade

POS 4291 Religion in Politics Term Grade

POS 4931 Survey Research Term Grade

POS 4931 Media and Politics Term Grade

POS 4931 Beyond the Beltway: Politics in States, Counties, and Communities Term Grade

POS 4931 Ethics in American Politics Term Grade

PUP 3323 Women in Politics Term Grade

Return completed applications, along with an unofficial transcript, to Prof. Daniel Smith at 003 Anderson Hall. Deadline for Spring applications is March 1 of year you intend to graduate; for students graduating in December, the deadline is November 1 of the intended year. Deadline for Summer graduation is July 1 of the intended year.