GOALS

Differentiate between myths and reality of American politics

Distinguish between assumptions and evidence in evaluating arguments

Evaluate the credibility of public information

Assess the validity of assumptions

Apply what you learn substantively to other areas of civic life

Develop critical thinking skills

Course Overview

This class provides a college-level introduction to American Federal Government. Students are expected to improve their knowledge necessary for informed civic participation. Each week introduces an important topic in American government to prepare you for further study in upper division Political Science courses.

The underlying theme of this class is how the logic of elections and institutional rules structure outcomes in American politics. We will discuss process, politics as conflict and compromise, and how politics is everywhere. The electoral incentive will be prevalent throughout the semester, as we seek to understand why things are the way they are, not what they should be. By the end of the course, students should be able to critically evaluate claims about the U.S. political system using empirical evidence.

This course satisfies a Social and Behavioral Science (S) General Education requirement and is required of all Political Science and College of Journalism majors. It is also a prerequisite to many other courses in American politics in the Department of Political Science. Finally, it covers these Civic Literacy Competencies:

1. Understanding of the basic principles and practices of American democracy and how they are applied in our republican form of government;
2. An understanding of the United States Constitution and its application;
3. Knowledge of the founding documents and how they have shaped the nature and functions of our institutions of self-government; and
4. An understanding of landmark Supreme Court cases, landmark legislation and landmark executive actions and their impact on law and society.

How to Succeed

Go to class. Lectures emphasize and explain important concepts and theories beyond the text. Discussion sections provide opportunities to debate important related topics. PowerPoints are available on Canvas but will not replace notetaking.

Read assigned readings, including:

- Bianco, W. and D. Canon. 2021. American Politics Today, 7th Essentials Edition, W.W. Norton, 2021.
- Emenaker, R., and J. Monroe, J., eds. 2022. Current Debates in American Government, 3rd Ed, Oxford University Press
- The Federalist Papers. (selected)
- The New York Times or Wall Street Journal.

Both texts are purchased through UF All Access. The Bianco/Canon is linked in Canvas; the reader will be an e-book. The Federalist Papers are linked in Canvas and UF provides free subscriptions to both newspapers. More information about accessing the reading is on page 3.

Visit me or your TA during office hours if necessary.

Complete all the assignments on time.

Weekly Pattern

This course includes lectures on Mondays and Wednesdays that will introduce material, and discussion sections that provide opportunities for students to engage synchronously in political discussions and civil debates with multiple points of view and to master the ability to synthesize information that informs civic decision making.

I encourage thoughtful participation in lectures. We will use the iClicker technology, available free to UF students, to enable snap polling, stimulate discussion, and track lecture participation and attendance. I also make time for additional free-form discussion especially of current events in the major newspapers.

Weekly discussion sections will allow you, along with your TA, to discuss complex and controversial issues in American politics to illustrate the themes of the course. Students should be prepared to read, evaluate, and discuss different points of view in discussion sections, and reaction post on Canvas.

Beginning July 1, 2021, students entering the University of Florida must satisfy the State of Florida's Civic Literacy requirement. To facilitate this, we have created 14 discussion sections to accommodate your schedules. For more info: BOG Regulation 8.006 (<https://www.flbog.edu/wp-content/uploads/8.006-Civic-Literacy.pdf>); UF's Civic Literacy web site: (<http://undergrad.aa.ufl.edu/for-students/civic-literacy-requirement/>) .

Assessment & Grading

To achieve our course goals and civic literacy competencies, students will acquire knowledge of the structural foundations of American politics, including the Constitution, the fragmentation of political power, political behavior, elections, institutions, and civil rights and liberties. Assessment of those goals occurs as follows:

Exams: You will take three machine-graded multiple-choice exams. Exams cover material from lecture, discussion, readings, and current events. While exams are not cumulative, some issues are revisited later in the semester and could appear on a later exam. Exams must be taken on the scheduled date, except in documented emergencies. Each exam is worth 20% of your course grade.

Lecture Participation/Attendance: Attendance in the lectures is required and is taken via iClicker Student - an app on your phone or tablet. Students will be awarded one point for each class session attended and one point for each iClicker Student question answered during a class session (up to five per class). These cannot be made up but may be waived with a documented excused absence. Lecture participation, a percentage of points earned out of those available, is worth 5% of your course grade.

Weekly Discussion Reaction Posts: Weekly reaction posts are due Wednesdays at 11:59 pm on Canvas; they form the Thursday/Friday class discussion. Assignments may take a variety of formats, including (1) a short reaction paper to one or more of the readings, or (2) a reflection on how a contemporary political issue or event is related to the readings. These tasks will help you to participate in the American political system. Reaction posts are short, not more than 300-400 words, and submitted via the discussion boards on Canvas. Your TA will grade these using the rubric on page 4.

Discussion Sections: Weekly discussion groups are not mini lectures, but active discussions of the assigned readings (from Current Debates). Your TA will assign 25% percent of the course grade based on participation and attendance in discussion sections. Attendance accounts for 5%, while the remaining 20% is based upon the quality of your section participation. Please see grading rubric for participation on page 4.

GRADING SCALE
A	93.0 -100%
A-	90.0-92.9%
B+	87.0-89.9%
B	83.0-86.9%
B-	80.0-82.9%
C+	77.0-79.9%
C	73.0-76.9%
C-	70.0-72.9%
D+	67.0-69.9%
D	63.0-66.9%
D-	60.0-62.9%

iClicker, UF All Access, & Free News

iClicker Student: Go to your device’s “store” to download the iClicker Student App and search for UF and the course (American Federal Government (POS 2041)). Upon arriving to the MW lecture, open the app, check in, and answer any questions on screen. Please use your UFL email address when signing up (or it won’t send your scores to Canvas). UF All Access: Our texts are via UF All Access, with the main text delivered through Canvas. You must first opt-in: go to <https://bsd.ufl.edu/allaccess>, click opt-in and log in with your Gator Link account. You must opt-in within the first three weeks of the semester to continue to read the book in the modules on Canvas. New York Times & Wall Street Journal: For access to the NYT subscription, go to my.ufl.edu (main menu, quick links, then NY Times). To activate your Wall Street Journal subscription, go to <https://partner.wsj.com/enter-redemption-code/FLA043p2wca>. Use your UFL email address to sign up.

Grading Rubric: Discussion Section Participation

This portion of your grade (20%) is based on the quality of your participation in discussion group (Th/F), including listening, preparation, quality of contributions, impact on the class, and frequency of participation. Opinions held by other students, the instructor, the TA, and the guest speakers should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all. A - strong in most categories; B - Participation is strong in some categories but needs development in others; C -Need for development in most categories; D - Typically unsatisfactory in several categories; E - Unsatisfactory in nearly all.

	Strong	Needs Development	Unsatisfactory
Listening	Actively and respectfully listens to peers and instructor	Sometimes displays lack of interest in comments of others	Projects lack of interest or disrespect for others (including browsing other materials during class)
Preparation	Arrives fully prepared with all assignments completed, and notes on reading, observations, questions	Sometimes arrives unprepared or with only superficial preparation	Little evidence of having completed or thought about assigned material
Quality of contributions	Comments are relevant and reflect understanding of assignments, previous remarks of other students, and insights about assigned material	Comments sometimes irrelevant, betray lack of preparation, or indicate lack of attention to previous remarks of other students	Comments reflect little understanding of either the assignment or previous remarks in class
Impact on class	Comments frequently help move class discussion forward	Comments sometimes advance the conversation, but sometimes do little to move it forward	Comments do not advance the conversation or are actively harmful to it
Frequency of participation	Actively participates at appropriate times	Sometimes participates but at other times is "tuned out"	Seldom participates and is generally not engaged or absent

Grading Rubric: Weekly Reaction Papers

Your TA will use the following rubric to assess your weekly reaction posts. Each post is worth 12 points. You will have eleven posts; your lowest score will be dropped.

Criteria	Exceeds	Proficient	Competent	Below
Analysis & Critical Thinking	Synthesizes new concepts and formulates evidenced based conclusions; makes connections to other readings and/or current events. Key issues fully identified. (7.5-8 points)	Evaluates and analyzes the concepts provide some examples. Most key issues are identified. (6.5-7.4 points)	Understand and discusses basic concepts. Minimal use of readings and examples. Some key issues identified. (4.5-6.4 points)	Gathers and understands simple concepts related to the topic; discussion superficial; few or no examples given; key issues missing. (0-4.4 points)
Conventions	Minimal spelling or grammar errors; well organized. Key organizing thesis present. (4 points)	Occasional spelling or grammar errors. Some sense of a thesis statement. (3 points)	Frequent errors, thesis not clear. (2 points)	Multiple grammatical and spelling errors, no thesis present. (1 point)

The Fine Print: Course, Department, and University Policy in Brief

Attendance: Attendance is required. Students failing to attend class during the first week may be dropped from the course; excessive absences could result in a failing grade. Requirements for class attendance, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>). Please contact Dr. Robbins if you will miss lecture and your TA if you will miss discussion for documented absences (e.g., religious observances, illness, or academic/athletic competitions).

COVID-19 (and other illnesses): If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. Vaccines are readily available and have been demonstrated to be safe and effective against the COVID-19 virus. Visit one.ufl.edu for vaccination opportunities.

- If you are sick, stay home. Please call your primary care provider if you are ill and need immediate care or the UF Student Health Care Center at 352-392-1161 to be evaluated.
- Course materials will be provided with a documented excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work.

Late Work: Canvas will assess a 5% per day penalty automatically to late work.

Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback is available at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals or via Canvas. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Disability Services: Students who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. Please share your accommodation letter (and discuss your needs) with Dr. Robbins as early as possible.

Plagiarism/Cheating: Cheating/plagiarism will result in zero for the assignment and will be reported to the SCCR. Students are bound by the UF Honor Pledge: <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>.

Current UF Grading Policies/Grade Points: Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points is here: catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/.

Recording lectures/discussion: Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.
